Dive and Snorkel Trip – If you are a scuba diver and have your certification, you can rent dive gear for $80. Included are two guided dives. Snorkel gear is provided free of charge. Discovery dive costs $55. We will depart from quarterdeck at 8 a.m. after everyone has signed out. A short drive to the dock to board the 60-foot motor sailer for the trip to one of several snorkeling and diving spots in the area. The boat has all the conveyance, plenty of shade with lunch included at no charge. Soda and beer is for sale. We expect to be back around 7 p.m. The trips are first-come-first serve, with a minimum of 20 folks.

Scuba Diving Classes Start — Classes to earn your PADI open water scuba diving certification will begin soon. The cost for the course including all equipment instruction and four open water dives is $350. The two-week course consists of classroom and pool sessions on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 7-10 p.m. with open water on one of the weekend days that week. Specialty course are also available for certified divers. Those interested should contact Scott Ballentine at MWR Cell – 831-027 or drop by the MWR office.

Dorale Beach Swimming Outing – After signing out at the quarterdeck a bus takes you to Dorale Beach for swimming, beach sports, sunbathing or just sitting in the shade. Refreshments are for sale at the site. Hotdogs and hamburgers will be served. There is no charge for the outing.

Sgt. Diaz joined the Army shortly after completing his Bachelor's degree in management information systems at Turabo University in Caguas, Puerto Rico. Diaz left for basic training at Fort Benning, Ga., on Sept. 20, 2000. He then left for Advanced Individual Training also in Georgia at Fort Gordon.

In June 2001, then-Spc. Diaz, received orders to report to South Korea where he worked as computer analyst. After his one-year tour of Korea, Diaz traveled across the Pacific Ocean to Fort Lewis, Wash. where he was the automations noncommissioned officer in charge with 1st Brigade, 25th Infantry Division, again working with computers.

"I like working with computers," said Diaz. "Mainly because every day is a challenge, and you never know what the next day will bring."

After spending more than a year at Fort Lewis, Diaz received orders to Combined Joint Task Force-Horn of Africa. He arrived on Nov. 25, 2003, where he became a Centrixs administrator in CJTF-HOA's J-6 office.

"Being in Africa has given me many experiences that I will take back to the states and teach my troops about," said Diaz.
